"Now then! That's fair and square!" he said.. "How do you know?" she whispered..Since the name of the person is the person, in the most literal and absolute sense, anyone who knows it has real power, power of life and death, over the person. Often a true name is never known to anybody but the giver and to the owner, who both keep it secret all their life. The power to give the true name and the imperative to keep it secret are one. True names have been betrayed, but never by the name giver..Ivory's spell of semblance dropped away like a cobweb. She was and looked herself.. "You saw it? You saw that?" She clenched her hands, imagining that flight.. "Ride back," he said. "Leave me here. There's enough food for one man for three or four days more..wherever here was, or anywhere. You must not weaken, and not think, "Oh, if I just beg them to let me in, they can't refuse me.".He reached out towards Yaved, towards the ache, the suffering. As he came closer to it he felt a great strength flow into him from the west, as if Silence had taken him by the hand after all. Through that link he could send his own strength, the Mountain's strength, to help. I didn't tell him I wasn't coming back, he thought, his last words in Hardic, his last grief, for he was in the bones of the mountain now. He knew the arteries of fire, and the beat of the great heart. He knew what to do. It was in no tongue of man that he said, "Be quiet, be easy. There now, there. Hold fast. So, there.
