"But you can't undo this!" he said aloud..told in the Havnorian Lay. Tracing descent both through the male and the female lines, and..again with that yearning look. The sun was setting; he stood up, bade her goodnight gently, and."Have you anything to tell me?" Dulse asked them..you were walking again among familiar trees, oak and beech and ash, chestnut and walnut and."I've been there."..He went slowly round to the eastern side of the hilltop, bright and warm already with the light of the sun a couple of fingers' width above the horizon. Looking under the sun he saw the roofs of a town at the head of a bay that opened out eastward, and beyond it the high line of the sea's edge across half the world. Turning west he saw fields and pastures and roads. To the north were long green hills. In a fold of land southward a grove of tall trees drew his gaze and held it. He thought it was the beginning of a great forest like Faliern on Havnor, and then did not know why he thought so, since beyond the grove he could see treeless heaths and pastures..dwindled into trifles. Might Diamond go (as his mother's uncle had gone) to the School of Wizards."I know nothing," Irian said. She stepped forward again, facing the mage directly. Tell me who I am."..man of power is celibate."..she still scowled, sometimes she smiled, but she did not laugh. When she could, she went to the..Wathort. "And you know it too. What you are to do I don't know, nor do you. That's to find. But there's no such power as to name yourself."..Otter pointed at the low slope that rose before them. "The King's House is there," he said. Gelluk's attention turned entirely away from him then, fixed on the hillside and the vision he saw within it. Then Otter could call to Anieb. At once she came into his mind and being, and was there with him..need be, I'll do it, of course. But you'll find wizards very sparing of the great spells. He let his sending sit down in the grass near Heleth, though it did not bend the stems of the grass where it stepped or sat. "I've done nothing but set the city in a panic," he said. "And send the ships out of the bay. What is it you feel? How do you feel it?"..He walked down the straggling street of Purewells to Sans house, which was about midway, opposite the tavern. San, a hardbitten man in his thirties, was talking to a man on his doorstep, a stranger. When they saw Irioth they looked uneasy. San went into his house and the stranger followed.."She asked to," said the Doorkeeper..looked at him kindly.."She will when the time comes. But she has no part to play in your decision, Diamond. Women know nothing of these matters and have nothing to do with them."..Those are spells of illusion only, of seeming. But there are true changes, and true summonings. And these may be true temptations to the wizard! It's a wonderful thing to fly on the wings of a falcon, mistress, and to see the earth below you with a falcon's eye. And summoning, which is naming truly, is a great power. To know the true name is to have power, as you know, mistress. And the summoner's art goes straight to that. It's a wonderful thing to summon up the semblance and the spirit of one long dead. To see the beauty of Elfarran in the orchards of Solea, as Morred saw it when the world was young..."..
