would not confront him directly, but. "Ah," San said, coming to the door, and hemmed a bit. "No need, Master Otak. This here is Master solitude, but still she missed Rose and Daisy and Coney, and the chickens and the cows and ewes. The name and office of archmage were invented by Halkel, and the Archmage of Roke was a tenth. BUT OF COURSE he went down to Havnor South Port, in one of his father's carts driven by one of his father's carters, along with Master Hemlock. As a rule, people do what wizards advise them to do. And it is no small honor to be invited by a wizard to be his student or apprentice. Hemlock, who had won his staff on Roke, was used to having boys come to him begging to be tested and, if they had the gift for it, taught. He was a little curious about this boy whose cheerful good manners hid some reluctance or self-doubt. It was the father's idea, not the boy's, that he was gifted. That was unusual, though perhaps not so unusual among the wealthy as among common folk. At any rate he came with a very good prenticing fee paid beforehand in gold and ivory. If he had the makings of a wizard Hemlock would train him, and if he had, as Hemlock suspected, a mere childish flair, then he'd be sent home with what remained of his fee. Hemlock was an honest, upright, humorless, scholarly wizard with little interest in feelings or ideas. His gift was for names. "The art begins and ends in naming," he said, which indeed is true, although there may be a good deal between the beginning and the end. "But we met, we sat, and we could not choose. We said this and said that, but no name was spoken. And then I..." He paused a while. There came on me what my people call the eduevanu, the other breath. Words came to me and I spoke them. I said, Hama Gondun! And Kurremkarmerruk told them this in Hardic: "A woman on Gont." But when I came back to my own wits, I could not tell them what that meant. And so we parted with no Archmage chosen..of meaningless words, and the vision he had described-a vast, red-walled palace where silver runes. In Veil's words he saw, all at once, the other side of Ember's impatience, her fierceness, her silences..THE KARGAD LANDS. He said only, "But not among the students."..perhaps -- hatched out an eagle.. "Before the dragon came, the Summoner too had returned from death, where he can go, where his art can take him. He had seen our lord and the young king there, in that country across the wall of stones. He said they would not come back. He said Lord Sparrowhawk had told him to come back to us, to life, to bear that word. So we grieved for our lord. "Ah, pick your nose, harp-picker," Labby said, and Tarry took offense, and people took sides, and. "If you wish."..got to his feet and shuffled, lame and unsteady, back down the valley..
